ORDER OVERRULING OBJECTIONS AND
ADOPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE
ON THE MOTION FOR CERTIFICATE OF APPEALABILITY

On May 12, 2008, Petitioner filed Petitioner Balentine's Objections to the Report and Recommendation of U.S. Magistrate Denying, In Part, Certificate of Appealability. (Doc. #75.) After making an independent review of the pleadings, files and records in this case, and the Report and Recommendation on the Motion for Certificate of Appealability by the United States Magistrate Judge (doc. #73), the Court finds that the objections lack merit, that the findings and conclusions of the United States Magistrate Judge are correct, and they should be adopted as the findings and conclusions of the Court.

In one of his arguments, Petitioner contends the exhaustion requirement is not applicable because he is claiming, under 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b)(1)(B)(ii), that the state corrective process as a whole is ineffective to protect his rights due to circumstances of ineffective assistance of state habeas counsel across the board and that he not merely complaining of the individual ineffective assistance of his state habeas counsel in this case. His objection that the United States Magistrate Judge misunderstood or mischaracterized this claim is without merit. The report and recommendation to deny habeas relief and the report and recommendation on the motion for certificate of appealability specifically identified Petitioner's argument in this regard but disagreed with Petitioner's conclusion that such circumstances could qualify under 28 U.S.C. § 2254(b)(1)(B)(ii) or constitute any legitimate excuse or reason for not presenting these claims to the state courts. Consequently, the United States Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation is adopted, and Petitioner's objections are overruled.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Petitioner Valentine's Objections to the Report and Recommendation of U.S. Magistrate Denying, In Part, Certificate of Appealability (doc. #75) be, and they are all hereby OVERRULED and DENIED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Report and Recommendation on the Motion for Certificate of Appealability by the United States Magistrate Judge (doc. #73), including all of his findings and conclusions, are hereby ADOPTED as the findings and conclusions of the Court.

Accordingly, a Certificate of Appealability is GRANTED as to Petitioner's claims 1 and 2 and DENIED as to all other grounds.

Signed on this 30 day of May 2008.

MARY LOU ROBINSON
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
